VALVET

Swedish Alternative Rock with Anthemic, Cinematic Depth

Valvet crafts modern alternative rock that blends the anthemic intensity of Kings of Leon with the dynamic, emotionally charged sound of Nothing But Thieves and the atmospheric and explorative textures of Alt-J and Young the Giant. Their sound carries the cinematic depth of Swedish indie rock, reminiscent of Kent and The Royal Concept, with soaring choruses and raw emotion. With guitar-driven melodies and emotionally charged lyrics, their music is a perfect fit for indie rock and alt-rock playlists that thrive on dynamic, introspective songwriting.

Formed in Lund, Sweden, Valvet started as a high school band—four classmates crafting songs in late-night studio sessions. Their DIY roots shine through in their debut album Valvbum1, featuring "As You Are," "Amber," and "Bleed Your Heart Out"—a record that explores themes of love, longing, and emotional transformation. Their raw, heartfelt performances earned them a finalist spot in Emergenza Sweden's state competition, proving their ability to connect with audiences.

Now signed to Rexius Records, Valvet is preparing to unveil a four-track EP, further refining their signature mix of introspective indie aesthetics and soaring rock choruses. With a growing fanbase and new music on the horizon, Valvet is quickly establishing itself as a rising force in Swedish indie and alternative rock.

New Single

MOUNTAINS

Out on 27th of June 2025

This powerful track captures the feeling of taking a leap of faith into the unknown—mirroring the real-life journey of the band members themselves, who are all on the brink of adulthood and facing the lessons that come with it. Blending acoustic and electric guitar with intense, almost orchestral rock drums, Valvet crafts a dramatic yet direct soundscape that underscores the song's lyrical exploration of personal introspection. "Mountains" speaks to the universal crossroads we all encounter—moments when we must step into darkness in order to discover a new light. "Mountains" is the first single of the upcoming EP "Within Dreams" that will be released in August later this year
